PACKS

NATURAL VILLAIN

The dudes from the Chicago band, Twin Peaks, came to the brewery to create an ideal beer for Pitchfork Music Festival with our Brewmaster, Jared. They brewed the perfect beer to drink in your garage, your front porch, and any music festival. Whether you're in a garage or not, the lightly bready qualities of this golden lager are balanced by a mild hop character that is simply refreshing.

REASONS TO BELIEVE

Natural Villain was originally brewed as a collaboration between Goose Island and Chicago band, Twin Peaks, for Pitchfork Music Festival
