

Atwater's History

- Founded in 1997, Atwater Brewery made its debut in Detroit Michigan in the historic Rivertown district with focus on bringing back the Bohemian style lager.
- Atwater currently holds true to making traditional German style lagers, along with unique boutique ales.
- Atwater is the 8th largest share of craft and the 4th for local craft in Michigan behind Bells, Founders and Shorts.
- Our most successful brands are Dirty Blonde and Vanilla Java Porter.
- In 2020 Molson Coors craft division Tenth and Blake acquired Atwater Brewery
- Our current operation consists of two production locations and four Tap Rooms. Our Taprooms are in Rivertown Detroit along the Detroit River, Atwater in the Park- Grosse Pointe Park (opened 2013), Atwater Brewery Grand Rapids (opened 2016), our newest location is in the Metro Detroit Airport (opened 2019 North Terminal).

