A NEW STANDARD IN WINE.

Avaline offers a range of wines that are made with organic grapes and free from unwanted additives. Founded by two close friends, Cameron Diaz and Katherine Power, the brand aims to raise the standard for what goes into consumers' wine glasses, inspiring them to drink with confidence.

OUR COMMITMENT TO ORGANICS, SUSTAINABILITY & TRANSPARENCY

- All vineyards are certified organic, meaning no synthetic herbicides and pesticides are used in farming
- Our wines are free from unwanted additives like added colors and concentrates
- We share all ingredients and nutritional information directly on our label

MEET OUR RED PRODUCER

EthicDrinks was founded by Mickael Alborghetti, a fourth-generation winemaker with a family vineyard in the Burgundy region of France. Today he's based in Bordeaux, and grows sustainable, organic grapes across several lush regions of the French countryside. His winery is certified carbon-neutral and plastic-free, making him one of the most sustainable winemakers in all of France.

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Organic by CCOF

TASTE/STYLE

Deep garnet hue with notes of warm baking spices on the nose. The palate has rich notes of cherry, black fruit and a touch of black pepper. It has a medium body and a balanced mouthfeel that provides a smooth finish.
