

MICHAEL DAVID

EST. | WINERY | 1984

Freakshow Cabernet Sauvignon

2021 | Lodi Appellation

TASTING NOTES

“This wine is deep opulent, magenta hued, aromas of black cherry cola, boysenberry, candied spiced pecans on the nose. The palate is blackberry confiture, fresh peaches, baked graham cracker crust, allspice and vanilla wafting through to the finish. Pair with Braised Beef Cheeks.”

HISTORY

Known for taking the road less traveled, Michael David Winery has always stood apart from the crowd. Whether it be their outlandish brands and packaging or their quirky personalities, Michael and David are definitely on a stage of their own and this wine showcases just that. The fruit for this wine comes from the original “super freak” himself, Michael Phillips’ Cabernet Sauvignon vineyard located only a medicine balls toss away from the winery.
