SMALL BATCH OF BARRELS FROM THREE WAREHOUSES TO REPLICATE GEORGE GARVIN BROWN'S BATCHING PROCESS IN 1870.

TASTE THE WHISKY OF OUR GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER.

In 1870 George Garvin Brown created Old Forester on Louisville, KY's, famous Whiskey Row. In honor of that milestone year in bourbon history, we have crafted a tribute - Old Forester 1870 Original Batch - the first expression in the Old Forester Whiskey Row Series. 1870 Original Batch echoes George Garvin Brown's original batching process. Back then, Brown batched barrels obtained from three distilleries to create a consistent flavor profile.

To emulate that process today, we also select barrels from three warehouses, each barrel originating from a different day of production, with a different entry proof and a different age profile. The three expressions of Old Forester are then batched together and minimally filtered to craft Old Forester 1870 Original Batch.

TASTING NOTES

AROMA: Clove notes spice up a medley of citrus fruit (orange, grapefruit, blood orange), all softened with a delicate, sweet, floral honeysuckle character.

FLAVOR: Baking spices (clove, cinnamon, nutmeg) flow into a citrus fruit mix and shortbread sweetness.

FINISH: Soft, with lingering fruit and spice character.
