

LOT 50

PROSECCO

VENETO, ITALY

Boundlessly refreshing, bursting with bubbles, and ready to party for any occasion... it's no wonder Lot 50 Prosecco has become the best-selling wine in the 90+ Cellars collection. From celebrations to weeknight dinners, cocktail affairs and beyond, there's no place this sparkling wine doesn't belong!

ABOUT THE WINE

Not far from Venice, between the mountains and sea, the region of Prosecco thrives with cooling night temperatures and Alpine breezes. This wine is made from Glera grapes harvested in the southeastern Veneto from cordon-trained vines planted in alluvial soils. After a soft press, the must is cooled and then fermented in stainless steel. Secondary fermentation occurs using the Charmat method, producing a bubbly with lasting effervescence.
