RELEASE NO. 2 2026

Luxurious depth through careful maturation and finishing in unique Port, Fino Sherry, Oloroso Sherry and wine casks to gently sweeten and draw out Glenfiddich's signature fruitiness

- A masterfully balanced marriage of whiskies influenced by first-fill bourbon barrels, and the finest wine and fortified wine casks.
- At its heart lies Glenfiddich's signature fruitiness, gently sweetened by a finish in bourbon barrels, then deepened and drawn outward through marrying casks with specifically selected whiskies, each fully matured or finished in four distinct types of casks: Port pipes, Oloroso sherry casks, wine casks and a final, delicate whisper of Fino Sherry butts.
- With each passing layer, richness gathers and unfolds – silken, oaky, assured – until the flavor once imagined stands fully revealed in the glass.
