Producer Story

The inspiration behind First & Local wines? It's all about relationships. First & Local wines are nurtured, from the community of growers who cultivate the grapes in California to the winemakers who hand-craft the final blends. The entire winemaking process mirrors the farm-to-table sensibility, treating each wine in a way that preserves the high quality of the varieties used to make First & Local Chardonnay, Cabernet and red-blend wines.

Geography

California wine has been produced since the area's first European settlers arrived centuries ago. Today, California wine country is the source for 90 percent of wine made in the United States, from everyday table wines to some of the world's most sought-after after bottlings..

Varietal / Type

Grown in cool climates, the variety delivers apple, pear and citrus fruit flavors and refreshing acidity. More moderate climates produce riper Chardonnay grapes with medium acidity and stone-fruit flavors. In warm regions, the typical Chardonnay taste is tropical, with pineapple and banana flavors, balanced with medium acidity.
