

➤ PERLES DE SAUVIGNON

- The Sauvignon grapes comes from the region located in the South of France between the Thau pond, Gruissan and Leucate. It is particularly renowned for its oysters and vineyards.
- To pay tribute to this Mediterranean region, Gérard Bertrand elaborated a Sauvignon wine that is the typical varietal from this area of South of France. This cuvee has a stunning crystalline color and reveals fresh aromas of citrus and exotic fruits.
- Its mineral profile and its liveliness makes it the ideal companion for oysters, seafood and grilled fishes.
- This unique bottle, magnified by a pearl necklace, has been designed by a French creator, Chantal Thomass, who is well-known for her refined and glamorous fashion collections.
- The iridescent label, delicately jeweled by pearls, and the blue glass stopper enhance the link between this cuvee and the Bay where it was born.

Blue Glass
Stopper

* Pearl Cove

