Prophecy™ 2016 Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

Prophecy Wines are inspired by the bounty of harvest and the possibility of greatness in a glass. Crafted to showcase each grape variety's defining characteristics, the wines of Prophecy come from premier growing regions around the world. Each wine unearths a shared journey of discovery. Prophecy currently offers a New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc and a California Pinot Noir, an Italian Pinot Grigio and a Red Blend that combines fruit from two renowned states. Prophecy – See the Unseen. Try the Untried.

About Prophecy Sauvignon Blanc:

Prophecy Sauvignon Blanc showcases the best of New Zealand's Marlborough region. Hints of fresh cut grass, orange blossom and cool sea air linger on the nose, while smooth, plush flavors of Meyer lemon, grapefruit, pineapple and lychee lead to a crisp, refreshing citrus finish.

Viticulture & Winemaking Notes:

Grape Selection: For our Sauvignon Blanc, we source our grapes from the most coveted place: Marlborough, New Zealand. Here, a long, cool growing season promotes vibrant fruit flavors and increased acidity. Marlborough is known for being one of the sunniest and driest spots in New Zealand, and vintage 2016 was a perfect example. The excellent growing was marked by warm and mild conditions throughout, as Sauvignon Blanc ripened evenly and slowly in the warm summer sun. During the cool, crisp maritime nights, the fruit developed complex flavors, well-developed acidity and Marlborough's classic structure. A large crop of full-bodied fruit packed the grapes with round, mouth-filling citrus, tropical flavor and smooth texture.

Varietal Content: Sauvignon Blanc

Winemaking: Fermentation occurred at cool temperatures in stainless steel vessels with minimal blend time to preserve the delicate fruit flavors and ensure a vibrant taste.
