

On July 11, 1804 off the Hudson shore at Weehawken, the original Federalist, Alexander Hamilton was shot in a duel by Aaron Burr and died from his injuries. Since dueling is no longer socially acceptable, we suggest solving problems over a glass of this “dual” of Zinfandel and Syrah. Our vineyards are just off the Russian River shore, where the weather displays a dichotomy between morning, afternoon and evening similar to that of Hamilton and Burr. The result is a mature wine with bright cherry jam aromas and big fruit flavors enhanced by hints of spice and lively acidity.

- Appellation: Dry Creek Valley
- Varietals: 50% Zinfandel & 50% Syrah
- Color: Dark Purple
- Aroma: Dark fruits of blackberry and black cherry with black pepper and spice
- Taste: Good entrance with a rich mouth feel and supple tannins
- Fermentation: Each varietal is fermented separately from free run juice. The individual lots spend an average of 15 days on the skins. Upon completing primary fermentation, the wine undergoes malolactic fermentation.
- Aging: Aged for 15 months in 20% new American and Hungarian oak barrels. American adds sweeter notes while the Hungarian provide spiciness
- Production: 3,500 cases

Features

- Unique blend of Zinfandel and Syrah, only with bolder, less muted flavors than competition and quality backing of Dry Creek
- Highest tier, Lowest production wine in the Federalist collection, sourced from Orsi in the south and balanced with Perotti and Winestock to the North in Dry Creek
- Iconic eye-catching label that grabs consumer attention

Benefits

- High quality alternative to other red blends, with pronounced blend of well known varietals
- Artistic and balanced blend with mature complexity and nice black fruit overtones
- Fun consumer label with quality backing produces high velocity item that drives profit

Competitive Set

- The Prisoner
- Ridge Lytton

UPC: 086891-08014-7
SCC: 10 086891-08014-4
Case: 12pk