

APPELLATION

Oregon (80% Umpqua Valley, 20% Willamette Valley)

This beautifully elegant and seductive wine has aromas of cherries, cola, strawberries with hints of exotic Thai lemongrass. The palate is lively and bright with flavors of raspberry and strawberry jam over an earthy and smoky richness which then finishes with brown spice nuances.

VARIETAL COMPOSITION

100% Pinot Noir

VINTAGE NOTES

The 2015 vintage in Oregon was another “extraordinary, nearly ideal growing season” generating fruit of intense flavor balanced by good acid structure.*

WINE PROFILE

Oregon Family Reserve Pinot Noir offers scents of strawberry, cherry and pomegranate supported by soft tannins. This beautifully elegant and seductive wine has aromas of cherries, cola and strawberries with hints of exotic Thai lemon-grass. The palate is lively and bright with flavors of raspberry and strawberry jam over an earthy and smoky richness which then finishes with brown spice nuances.

TECHNICAL DATA

Alc - 13.5%

TA - 5.31 g/L

RS - 1.75 g/L

Ph - 3.52

Joseph Carr
JOSEPH CARR

Wayne Donaldson
WAYNE DONALDSON

*Wine Spectator Wine Harvest Report: Oregon, 11/5/2015