THE CLASSIC

- The first ever Irish Whiskey to be bottled in Dublin.
- A pioneering force in bringing quality Irish Whiskey to the world for over 200 years.
- Our Pot Still process is unique to Ireland.

Back in 1791 our founding father James Power created a Single Pot Still Irish whiskey using only the center cut of the distillate. This style of whiskey is unique to Ireland, and is made from a mash of malted and unmalted barley. It is then triple distilled in traditional copper pot stills. But unlike any other Pot Still Irish whiskey, James Power went further. Every drop since James Power began his vision, has not only been triple distilled, but more top and tail gets thrown away than any other Irish whiskey. This means only the purest heart of the distillate remains.

Left to mature in selected American oak casks, this is where the spicy, bold character takes hold. It's then blended with the finest grain whiskey, exclusively matured for an unmistakable flavor. There's a simple reason that no other whiskey tastes like POWERS. No other whiskey is made like it.

TASTING NOTES

- NOSE: Cinnamon, clove oil and white pepper in balance with russet apples and ripe pears, on a background of charred oak.
- TASTE: Cinnamon, green peppers and a touch of nutmeg combined with orchard fruits, vanilla and toasted oak. All laid upon a crisp barley core.
- FINISH: Long Pot Still oils and spices slowly fade to rich barley and toasted wood.

Blended | Bottled at 43.2% ABV | Non chill filtered
