

BLUE ASH FARM®

HONEY BOURBON

Bourbon Whiskey Infused with Wildflower Honey from Wisconsin

From our hives to the bottle, this one-of-a-kind Bourbon is infused with honey collected from wildflowers in the Pecatonica River Valley. It really does taste as good as it sounds.

Hand-Crafted, Small Batch

HONORING WISCONSIN'S DRIFTLESS REGION

Blue Ash Farm is located in the Driftless Area of southwestern Wisconsin known for its deeply carved river valleys and abundance of wildlife and wildflowers. Its beautifully sculpted topography and forested hillsides are separated by various Wisconsin trout streams making it an outdoorsman's dream. Amish were the first to adopt this area and still farm the land today alongside a multitude of organic farmers.

It is no wonder that the O'Donnell family chose to put down roots in this majestic river valley. Blue Ash Farm is a celebration of family, friends and the great outdoors, named in honor of our grandparents, who established the original Blue Ash Farm in Kentucky in 1939. The vintage, family pick-up truck proudly displays an antique wooden sign, which has made its way through the generations and is a symbol of the authenticity and dedication that exists within each of these bottles. Blended and infused with some of nature's finest ingredients from our family farm, Blue Ash Farm Spirits "Celebrate Nature!"
